NUMB. 42.

THE South-Carolina Gazette.

Containing the freſheſt Advices Foreign and Domeſtick.

From Saturday, NOVEMBER 9, to Saturday, NOVEMBER 16. 1734.

The SPEECH of His Excellency
Robert Johnſon Eſq;
Captain General, Governor and Commander in Chief in and over His Majeſty's Province of South-Carolina, to the Commons Houſe in General Aſſembly met Nov. 8, 1734.

Mr. Speaker and Gentlemen;

MY Weakneſs and Indiſpoſition will not permit me to expatiate much upon the Affairs of Carolina at preſent, I ſhall only hint to you what I think requires your immediate Attention.

Your putting yourſelves in a poſture of Defence, and repairing the Fortifications.

The providing for the Expence of the current Year.

The making Proviſion for the ſubſiſting of Coll. Purry's People juſt arrived, which Mr. Oglethorp acquaints me his Majeſty expects, as looking upon Georgia and Purrysburgh as the greateſt Security and benefit imaginable to this Colony, and I am perſuaded what Mr. Oglethorp ſays will carry great weight, who has upon all Occaſions undergone ſo many fatigues whilſt here, and has approved himſelf ſince his being in England, a hearty Friend to this Province, he looking upon the Intereſt of Carolina and Georgia as inſeparable.

I ſhall communicate to you, as Occaſion offers, what Letters and Papers are neceſſary to be laid before you.

I am perſuaded you will continue to make his Majeſty's Pleaſure and Intereſt the Meaſure of your proceedings, which is the only Means, of being proſperous in all our Undertakings, his Views tending always to the Good and Wellfare of his People.

I flatter myſelf the ſame good Harmony will ſubſiſt between the two houſes of Aſſembly as has done ever ſince my having the honour to Govern this Province, which I ſhall promote to the utmoſt of my Power, with a juſt regard to his Majeſty's Rights and Prerogative, in which I am ſatisfied, Gentlemen of the Council, of your Aſſiſtance.

Council-Chamber, November 8th, 1734. R. JOHNSON.

To his Excellency ROBERT JOHNSON Eſq; Captain General, Governor and Commander in Chief in and over his Majeſty's Province of South-Carolina.

The Humble Addreſs of the Commons Houſe of Aſſembly.

May it pleaſe your Excellency,

WE His Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects the Commons of this his Province in General Aſſembly met, take this early Opportunity of returning your Excellency our unfeigned thanks for your Speech of yeſterday, and for the Concern for the Wellfare and Security of this Province therein expreſs'd.

This, were there any thing wanting for that Purpoſe, would alone be ſufficient to evince that his Majeſty's Intereſt and the Happineſs of his People, are things, that as they ought, ſo they really do ingroſs all your Excellency's Attention and Regard: For that under a ſevere Fit of Illneſs, when Eaſe and Receſs from publick Buſineſs is moſt to be deſired, moſt to be wiſh'd, your Excellency can in ſuch ſtrong Terms, ſet us an Example of, and recommend to us, as well a hearty Attachment and Fidelity to his Majeſty, as a generous Concern for the Publick Wellfare and Security of this his Province.

The Conſideration therefore of the uſeful and neceſſary Things recommended in your Excellency's Speech, particularly thoſe of putting our ſelves in a Poſture of defence and making Proviſion for the Subſiſtance of Coll. Pury's People lately arrived, and which Mr. Oglethorpe (a Gentlemen for whom we have a great Eſteem, as we are well acquainted with his Perſonal Merit, and whoſe Opinion is of very great weight with us) acquaints us His Majeſty expects ſhoud be done, your Excellency may be aſſured ſhall have our immediate Attention. Your Excellency's Goodneſs in promiſing to communicate to us what Papers are neceſſary to be laid before us for theſe Purpoſes, is what demands and has our heartieſt Thanks.

Your Excellency may be perſuaded that we will continue to make His Majeſty's Pleaſure and and Intereſt the meaſure of our Proceedings, as they are the only Means of rendering us proſperous and happy, and eſpecially as we need nothing at this time of day to convince us that His Majeſty's Views tend always to the good and Welfare of his People.

As we are truly ſenſible of the good Effects of the Harmony ſubſiſting between the two Houſes ſince your Excellency's Adminiſtration, ſo we ſhall uſe all our Endeavour to cultivate it for the future.

That your Excellency may long in Health Peace and Happineſs remain the Medium by which His Majeſty's gracious Intentions to us his loyal tho' diſtants Subjects, may be communicated, we are aſſured muſt ever be, as it is ours, the ſincere Wiſh of all others, who have the Intereſt of his moſt Sacred Majeſty and the Welfare and proſperity of this his Province really at Heart.

Briſtol, Aug. 31. Four of his Majeſty's Ships have been very diligent ſince laſt Friday in impreſſing all the foremaſt Men out of the homeward bound Ships coming up our Channel. This Impreſs has occaſioned a general Belief that a War will enſue early in the Spring. In the preſent Situation, ſeveral Merchants have poſtponed their building of Ships, waiting the event of Affairs, to be better able to proportion their Tonage and Guns; and as this Port was famous in the laſt War for their Privatiers, it is not doubted but they will behave as brave in any future.

CHARLESTOWN Nov. 16.

Coll. Purry is lately arrived from England at Purysburg in the Ship Simmon Capt. Corniſh, with 260 Switſers Proteſtants and their Miniſter Mr. Chiefelle; One hundred and odd more are expected there every day, who were ready to embark in the beginning of October laſt, amongſt thoſe are 40 perſons of the perſecuted Proteſtants in Piemont, and a Collecte has been made for them in England, where we hear that James Ogletborpe Eſq; has ſubſcribed 40 l. ſterl. the Duc de Montaigu and ſeveral other Perſons of diſtinction have likewiſe handſomely ſubſcribed. 'Tis hoped the Province will be kind enough to afford them the neceſſary Proviſion, Tools, Cattle &c. in order to help forward an infant Colony, which is now almoſt two Years old.
